

MARKING GUID C.R.E

S.2

SECTION: A

No.1.

- Human dignity is the way how some one is respected and valued in society.

No.2. Members respected in the community.

- Father and mother. (parents)
- Traditional cahiers.
- Kings.
- Regulus leaders.
- Political leaders.

No.3. Ways how children are dehumanized today.

- Sex abuse
- Child labour.
- Forced marriages.
- Over beatin

No.4.

- Forcing some one into marriage.
- Pape.
- Female genital mutilation.
- Domestic violence.
- Child kidnapping.

5(a) Marriage: Refers to the union between man and woman as husband and wife with the intention of producing children.

(b) Courtship: It is period spent by intending couple to marry each other by studying each other.

No.6). Importance of Jesus attending the wedding at canal.

- He wanted to show his humanity.
- He showed Jesus divinity.
- It helped to reveal Jesus messiahship.
- Helped to show the value of marriage.

(iii) Values revealed in the marriage ceremony at carn.

- Value of respect
- Value of love
- Value of humility
- Value of loyalty

No 6. Value promoted in the traditional African marriage

- Value of unity
- Value of obedience to ancestor
- Value of respect
- Value of love

No.7. Members that make up a family

- Father
- Mother
- Father – in low
- Mother – in low
- Children
- grand mother
- Uncle
- Auntie

No.8. Value reflected in Abraham's

- Obedience
- Patience
- Faithfulness
- Love

SECTION: B

No.9. Man has lived according to Gen 26: in the following ways

- Man has worshiped God
- Man has fellowshiped with God
- Man has praised and worshipped God
- Man has prayed to God
- Man has respected his or her sins
- Man has attended Bible study
- Man has co-created with God
- Man has reconciled with his or her enemy

No.10

- The Bible call upon people to love one another
- It teaches that all people are equal since they are created in God's image Gen 26.
- It encourages brother hood
- The Bible teaches respect for one another
- Encourages forgiveness and reconciliation

- The Bible call upon Christians to love one another
- It calls upon unity among people
- It teaches submission to each other

- Encourages working together
- The Bible encouraged faithfulness in marriage and other areas

No.11 Importance of courtship

- It strengthens the intending partners to marry
- It helps one to discover the partners behaviours
- It also promotes respect to the couple as they will not meet sexually
- Courtship gives time for one to plan for the family
- It promotes unity between the two families of the couple
- It opens the door for marriage which later leads to production of children

- Courtship enables one to identify the like and dislikes
- It fulfills one's dream
- It prevents unnecessary pregnancies with its associated problems
- Its help to know the background of each other
- it shows a good example to the young generation as sex
- it promotes aspects of patience, tolerance
- helps to plan for future

No.12) Purpose of marriage to:

(a) Children:

- It enables children to receive parental love
- Children acquire growth and developed
- Helps children to have a sense of belonging

- Children acquires responsibility
- Encourage forgiveness and reconciliation among children
- Helps in discipling the children

(b) To community

- Marriage helps one to regain respect
- Marriage/ married people develop the community economically.

- Discipline is promoted in the community
- Help to rise good citizens

No.13. Similarities between African Tradition marriage and Christian marriage

- Both consider bride wealth as important
- In both divorces is condemned
- In both family planning is condemned
- In both marriages is between man and woman
- In both family planning is condemned
- In both child bearing is important

Differences

- In Christianity partners choose for themselves marriage partners while as in ATS parents choose for their children
- In African Traditional virginity was valued while as in Christianity it is of less value
- In African Tradition marriage was polygamous while in Christianity it is monogamous
- In African tradition marriage love was less important while in Christianity, love is of high value
- In African tradition marriage adultery was normal while as in Christianity Adultery is a sin
- In African tradition marriage a husband was the head of family while in Christianity both of them are equal
- Early marriage was acceptable in African tradition marriage where as in Christianity early marriage is forbidden.